

UNIFORM

St Francis College is an identifiable “community”. This community is judged, as a whole, by others who see it in many different situations and circumstances. Co-operation with the following minimum standards and expectations will assist in the prevention and enhancement of the College’s reputation, and the standing of all College members in the wider community.

All students are expected to wear full, correct uniform to and from the College. Students must wear the full uniform in public, not parts of the uniform mixed with other clothing.

All items of uniform should be clearly named.
